Words from Their Excellency's

Since the last few months have found Their Excellency's a bit busy I have taken a few excerpts from our Barony Facebook Page over the last few months.

Once again, We find ourselves in awe of Our fellow Atenveldters.

The 13th Semiannual Novice Tourney last night was shining example of how amazing our chosen family is. We were astounded by the number of attendees. We know all too well that we all have lives outside of the dream and that a night in the middle of the week can be difficult to schedule for an event. We cannot express how honored we are that all that attended chose to spend their time to be part of this tournament.

Thank you to all that support this tournament. HE Arianna for her service as List for this tournament since it's creation. To Mistress Katrina for running the List as well and to all the others that helped these ladies. Thank you to Sir Nudd, all of the knights and other good gentles who marshaled the tournaments, We appreciate all of your efforts in keeping the combatants as well as the spectators safe. Our gratitude also goes out to those that We so frequently forget to publicly thank. We speak of all the kind folks who load and unload Our wagon without being asked, who bring Us water because We have not thought to do so, those that attend Us, standing quietly making Us look like We are organized and to Our amazing heralds who keep it all together and keep everyone informed. And to Lady Auelene who makes the wonderful belt favors without fail, thank you.

We would also like to thank all the fighters that came out to display their prowess and to the consorts who proved to be the example of inspiration.

There would be no Barony, Kingdom or Society without the wondrous people whose hearts make up what We call Our dream.

Forever Inspired,

Baron Seelos and Baroness Elena

By Grace of the Crown of Atenveldt, the 15th Coronet of the Barony of Atenveldt

Watching the kids fighting boffer last night reminded me to send in my background check information today. If you come to events, can handle the smell of cookies and dirt and understand the importance of our Youth Programs, you can obtain the forms from Jean-andre Boeye and be part of sculpting the future of the SCA.

Her Excellency kept us entertained over the last few month with BOA Jeopardy. It is a wonderfully entertaining and informative posting.

And last but not least Their Excellencies posted:

Unto the Populace of Our Barony,

We have a several events coming up. Baronial Anniversary, Champions, and Yule, to name a few. These are the events at which We would like to make new members of Our Baronial Orders. However, it seems that our hardworking populace has not taken a break to recognize each other for their efforts. Any Member of Our Populace can make these recommendations, be they Members of the Order or Commanders themselves, or not. We ask that every member of Our Populace take a moment to review the Award Charters see if they can think of a Member of the Populace to recommend for each of the Awards.

Always in Service,

Baron Seelos and Baroness Elena

Message from the Chronicler

Hello everyone

This edition is another short one as I am still gathering all the information and sources to the redesigned Palm Prints pages I am putting together. The calendar of events, Archery, Thrown Weapons and tournament schedules are still being updated and gathered. Please remember I am looking for unique and informative articles to include as well. As a reminder if you would like to submit an article, art for the cover page or within the publication, or announcements to the publication please send them to me directly at: rockysmomy@gmail.com or chronicler@BaronyofAtenveldt.org as well as in person at Wednesday night Fighter Practice or at the Baronial Business Meeting. Deadline for Submissions to the Palm Prints is preferably the 28th of each month, to be included in the next month's issue.

Kingdom Event Notices

Fighting at Kingdom Arts and Sciences Competition!

2nd Barony of Atenveldt Duke Deaton Great Sword Prize Tourney

This is your invitation to join us this year for what is certain to be an exciting pair of tournaments, both hardsuit and rapier. Once your site fee for the event is paid, there is no additional entry fee for the tournament.

The hard suit portion of this tournament will be fought with great sword in honor of Duke Deaton's favored fighting style. There will be prizes for the most chivalric fighter and the consort who has the most dramatic lament over their fallen fighter. Please check the list as the rapier portion will be forth coming, but it is sure to be just as grand.

Kingdom Arts and Sciences Competition

Aug 10th, 2013

We're putting together a lot of activities for people to enjoy throughout the day. Are you an artist with a piece in the competition and don't know what to do while you're waiting? Are you a judge whose finished with all your categories wondering what to do til court? Join us for Artisan's Alley! Bring your projects and practice your arts in a fun and creative environment with others doing the same. If you are between projects or want to try something new we'll have tables stocked with spindles and roving, thread, embroidery frames, needles and fabric, paper, pens and paints and more! Supplies are available to anyone willing to use them. There will be merchants, heraldry consultation, and a bake sale. Keep an eye out for more details. If you want to help with any or all of the above let me know. -

Dame Jennifer Trethewy, Event Steward

While great artisans of Atenveldt bring forth their best works for evaluation all are welcome to spend the day in an Artisan's Alley. This is an opportunity to gather with others who share interests and practice crafts. Bring your projects or use some donated supplies to learn/teach something new.

ATENVELDTUS GLORIOUS

SUBMISSIONS ACCEPTED UNTIL SEPTEMBER 1, 2013

We are now accepting submissions for the 2013 issue of the Atenveldtus Glorious, the Arts and Sciences issue of the Southwind.

As many of you know, the Atenveldtus Glorious has moved to Google Sites, an online format. In order to be able to faithfully recreate your hard work, we are asking that you provide your submissions in the format that is requested.

Your articles would resemble the sample below:

Text:

Black work was very prominent in the 16th century, particularly during the late 1500's. Many articles of clothing were done with black work. Below is an example of some styles of black work. (Insert blckwrk1.jpg and blckwrk2.jpg)

You would then send your text file AND your image files (blckwrk1.jpg, blckwrk2.jpg) separately.

Alternately, if you have many pictures, you could put them in a zip file. In any case, you can send them through email, or put them on a CD and snail mail. Also, if you are doing a "HOW-TO" with a lot of pictures, consider doing a video. We will record it for you.

The best submission format for articles is the above format, as it makes the preparations much easier for the web editor, and it makes it a lot quicker to create your article as a web page.

A permission form is required. Please open Kingdom site, open A&S and go to Atenveldt Glorious page. There you will find submission guidelines. Click on the permission form under the "Welcome" paragraph or if you are snail-mailing click on the PDF Permission form. You only need ONE form no matter how many submissions you are making.

All submissions and permission forms will first come to Dame Fiona. I would prefer receiving articles in Word wherever possible. It is easier for me to download and edit before it is sent to the web editor.

With our new format changes, please contact me with any questions you may have. And/Or visit the Current Issue on line. For web-related questions, please contact THL Wynne, and she can set up photography sessions as well.
