Words from Their Excellency's

Greetings to The Barony of Atenveldt!

The month of February is upon us. That means the Estrella War is rapidly approaching. We can hardly believe that Our second Estrella as baron and baroness is almost here. We are extremely excited about all the goings on this year.

January was a month of camaraderie and new beginnings.

On the 4th, We attended The Kingdom of Atenveldt 12th Night Family Revel. Sir Nudd and his team hosted a wonderful event that was enjoyed by all. We joined together, as a chosen family, and celebrated the end of the winter holiday season. The venison was amazing as well as everything that folks brought for the potluck. We were even graced by bardic performances by the kingdom's youth.

On the very next day, We traversed to The Barony of Sundragon to attend the Central War Practice. What a lovely turnout. The weather was perfect and the soup kitchen was exceptional.

Saturday the 12th found us in The Barony of Tir Ysgithr for the Southern War Practice and baronial polling. Once again, the Atenveldt weather was perfect for a day in the park. The wonderful soup kitchen kept us all fed. We were proud of the turn out from Our barony. At the close of the day, it was announced the Master Simon and Mistress Magdalen will be the next baron and baroness of BTY. We look forward to working with Our new cousins.

On Saturday the 25th, HE Seelos and I had a wonderful time at the Northern War Practice. We were privileged to be able to witness the stepping down of Baron Brian and Baroness Natalia and the investiture of the second Coronets of The Barony of Granite Mountain, Jacob and Elizabeta. The day was brought to a crescendo as we partook of a wonderful feast and revelry.

Crown Tournament and Warlords is the first weekend in February and We will be there to witness who will become the next Crown of Atenveldt.

On February the 8th, an event near and dear to Our hearts, The Heroes of the Silent Angels, will be held at Sir Elias' residence. We are truly looking forward to the Stardust recharge that this event gives Us.

Then.... on to WAR!

Forever Inspired by the Populace of The Barony of Atenveldt

Baron Seelos & Baroness Elena

15th Coronet of The Glorious Barony of Atenveldt

Their Excellencies Seelos and Elena would like to invite you to the Barony of Atenveldt's 5th annual Heroes of the Silent Angels Tournament on Saturday February 8, 2014. This event will be FREE and filled with tournaments and prizes for all to participate in.

We, the autocrats, want this year to be a celebration of the accomplishments of this amazing populace over the last 4 years. We will be providing a lunch time feast prepared by Master Voron for everyone to enjoy! If you have someone you want to bring out to introduce them to the SCA this event is one that will enamor them with the "stardust". There will be a youth corner with crafts & games to entertain your young ones. A&S display area and Merchants are welcome; we just ask that they contact an autocrat for details.

Archery tournament will be held on January 26th at the normal Atenveldt/Sundragon practice.

Saturday will be for the Heroes, who put their armor on to help support this special group known as Silent Angels. There will be Rapier, Youth and Hard Suit prize tournaments to raise donations for the International Rett Syndrome Foundation. A small donation would be greatly appreciated but is not required to enter the tournaments. For those Heroes who do not wish to compete we offer a helm auction so you may choose a fighter who will battle in your honor.

In the tradition of the Barony of Atenveldt, all pageantry is strongly encouraged. So please bring your consorts & heraldry and show us your chivalry on the field. The Youth victor & Sponsor will receive a purse of Coins. The victor of Hard Suit & Rapier tournaments shall receive a chest of silver coins ($200). The gentles that have won each victors helm in the auctions shall also receive a chest of silver coins ($200). The Tournament Lists will open at 9:30am & close at 10:30am. The Helm Auction will begin following court and fighting will begin after auction is concluded.

Artisans and masters from all over the kingdom have in the past donated amazing and beautiful works of artistry, to the silent auction. We are excited to receive their donations again this year. This is a magnificent opportunity to own amazing pieces of hand crafted art as well as the occasional random or amazing bits of Atenveldt history.

For those who may not have heard of Rett Syndrome here is a brief description of this syndrome and how it affects these Angels.

Rett Syndrome is a severe neurological disorder the primarily affects girls. Rett Syndrome is the most physically disabling of the autism spectrum disorders. Rett Syndrome is caused by a mutation in the gene MECP2 –a protein that regulates the expression of other genes by turning them off at the appropriate time. The mutation is spontaneous and the effects are seen in early childhood between 6 to 18 months of age. The disorder destroys speech, movement, and functional hand use. Many children lose the ability to walk, they struggle daily with severe seizures, scoliosis, breathing abnormalities, and often the child becomes dependent on others for a lifetime of care. These children's normal life expectancy is to the age of 14 to 17.

Barres Wednesday, February 26, 2014, 3:00pm & Sunday, March 2, 2014, 1:00pm
Town Square, Sports Field Barres is an adult game played thusly:

The game is played on a rectangular field. At both ends, in each of the corners a base square is laid out. Base A is in the upper right hand corner and Base B is in the lower right corner. Opposite end of the field the bases are reversed, Base A is in the lower left corner and Base B is in the upper left hand corner. Base A and B on the right side of the field represent the teams prison and the opposite side of the field their freedom.

The game is played with two Captains and two Lieutenants, each with ten players. Both teams start with all of their team members in prison. The Captains are both placed in the center of the field. The Lieutenants to the sidelines, only one prisoner can try and escape from their prison at a time. They must avoid being tackled by the opposing Captain and make it to their freedom square on the opposite side of the field. If they are brought to ground, they go back to prison to wait their turn to try an escape again, and the next prisoner attempts to escape. The Captains can choose to be replaced by their Lieutenant

(but only once during the course of play). The team who gets all of their prisoners out of prison and into the freedom square first wins.

Period Field Games Wednesday-Sunday, 8:00am – 5:00pmTown Square- Games Field If you are feeling energetic engage in a the various period games of skill played upon a field. Badminton, bocci and croquet will be set up and awaiting your pleasure to play, daily between the hours of 8 AM - 5 PM. No check out required this year.

Shuttlecock was played with a cork with feathers stuck into it and was batted about by a wooden paddle, later to develop into paddles strung with fiber. With the addition of a net, shuttlecock became badminton. Bocci ball has its origin in period lawn bowling games in which involved each player to roll a ball down the lawn and try to knock over his opponent's cone in the fewest moves. There were several variants of croquet in the middle ages known as Ring-Ball, Club-Ball and Trap Ball.

Board/Tabletop Games Wednesday-Sunday, 8:00am – 5:00pmTown Square- Food court pavilion After a lazy meal, rest your weary bones and engage your mind playing table games: Chess, backgammon and dominoes. You are invited to bring your personal board games and play them as well. The board/table games will be set up and awaiting your pleasure in the Food Court pavilion, from 8 AM - 5 PM. No check out required this year.

Chess was invented in India, spread by the Persians and by the eleventh century made it into every upper class home in Europe. Backgammon has its ancient roots in Roman times, and it too was spread throughout the Mediterranean and was introduced into Europe. As with chess, many, many versions were in existence. The earliest mention of dominoes is from Song Dynasty China. Dominoes first appeared in Italy during the 18th century, it is speculated that Italian missionaries in China may have brought the game to Europe.

Outlands Heavy Combat Prize Tournament Thursday, February 27 - Registration at 9:00am & Tournament starts at 10:00am Special Events Field/Eric in Town Square
The Kingdom of the Outlands will hold their annual heavy weapons prize tournament open to all authorized heavy weapons fighters. Sign-up for the tournament will be held beginning at 9 a.m. with tourney starting at 10 a.m. The fighting will be as follows:

To open, there will be up to 6 fighting fields with equal numbers of fighters in each. Assignment of fighters to these cells will be a mixture from all kingdoms represented at sign-up. Each cell will hold a 1-hour Bear Pit tournament. The first and second fighters will start off in a single fight. The loser will exit to give the name of the one who just beat them to the Lists Mistress for their field and goes to the end of the line. The next fighter in the line goes in to fight the winner. You know the drill. If there is a double kill, both fighters are considered to have a loss. In this case, 2 new fighters will enter the ring for the next fight. If a fighter in a cell achieves 15 wins, they are automatically in the final and are removed from the Bear Pit. Weapons are limited to 7.5 feet in length.

After the 1-hour Bear Pit, the top 5 winning fighters (including those that acquired 15 wins in that cell) will move on to a Best 2-of-3, double elimination tournament with all the pomp (double kills refought). Draws will be semi-random but will try to minimize the fighters having to fight someone from their own kingdom or one they have fought before. This will start with two (or more) fields and dwindle to one as the number of fighters lessens.

The victor will receive wonderful prizes gifted by Outlands artisans and her citizens! Questions? Contact Duchess Kathryn of Iveragh, FerventKip@gmail.com

Que Loo Loo Thursday, February 27, 2014, 10:00am & Saturday, March 1, 2014, 1:00pm Town Square, sport's field
Que Loo Loo is a child's game played thusly: There is a mother hen (adult women) with chicks (children) strung out behind her. Each chick holds on to the coat of the one in front of it. The hen has both hands free to block the wolf. If the mother hen touches the wolf, the wolf must go back to his "den", come out and try again. The wolf can then devour the 'chick' by tickling it with the captured feather. Only one chick can be taken at a time. The hen is free to flee to her hen house while the wolf is in route too, at, or leaving his den, but she can only flee when all of her chicks are lined up and holding the coat of the chick in front of them (so if the children scream and run when the wolf attacks they need to regroup). The hen tries to get her chicks to the hen house. If she gets at least one chick to safety, she wins. If not the wolf wins.

Rapier Torchlight Novice Tournament Thursday February 27, 2014 at 6:30pm to 8:00pm Estrella War Known World Rapier Camp

The rapier novices of Atenveldt revealed themselves in great numbers at Southern Crusades. There must always be opportunities for the new men and women of the rapier community to show their steel. At Estrella War there shall be a Rapier Torchlight Novice Tourney for those among the populace of Atenveldt who have been fighting for 2 years or less and have not been recognized at the Kingdom level with a fighting award. There shall be prizes for the top three fighters but also for the most chivalrous and the most disciplined or practiced. This is a chance to throw your hat and your blade into the tournament ring that should not be passed up. The format will be contingent upon numbers but expect a Round Robin that will maximize the number of fights. What better way to show your burgeoning skill than by crossing blades by torchlight?

Atenveldt allowable blade conventions will be observed. Parrying devices, armor, and weapons will be inspected before each tournament by Tournament Marshals and designees. Armor standards are those of your home kingdom. All authorized rapier fighters must provide proof of their authorization in Heavy Rapier / Cut & Thrust Rapier, or else have a Marshal from their Kingdom vouch for them. Sponsored by the College of St. Felix (Lord William of Lochridge)

Annual Estrella War Banana Bread Bakeoff Thursday, February 27, 2014 at 7:30pm (bread Drop off 5:00pm to 7:30pm)Barony of Sundragon Baronial Pavilion Anyone interested in competing in this time honored competition may deliver their entries to the Sun Dragon Baronial Encampment between 5:00 and 7:30 PM on the day of the competition

The CPQBB (Committee for the Preservation of Quality Banana Bread) will once again host the Annual Estrella War Banana Bread Bakeoff on Thursday evening at the war. This ancient and venerable competition will continue to evolve as we learn from previous years, so please note the details and changes below. We will continue with the same categories that we had last year including the populous choice, which will give those in attendance and opportunity to sample the breads and determine their favorites. Prizes will be given in the following categories:

Traditional Banana Breads (with or without nuts)Non-traditional Banana Breads (although they must still contain bananas) Gluten Free Banana Breads Populous Choice

This year we will limit contestants to a single entry in the first two categories. This means that competitors can either enter a traditional or a non-traditional banana bread entry, but not entries in both categories. Competitors may also enter a gluten free banana bread regardless of whether or not they have made an entry in one of the first two categories. All entries in the first three categories will be automatically entered into the Populous Choice category. In addition contestants may also add as many additional entries as they wish to compete in the Populous Choice.If you would like to ensure that you have a place to sit during the competition, please bring a chair with you.

Rules and Legal Jargonese: All entries must be made by the entrant, but do not need to be made on site. Both breads with and without nuts will be acceptable, as well as breads that do not meet the traditional definition of banana bread provided they do in fact contain bananas and are a bread. Winner will be chosen by a panel of well-qualified judges who have all passed the CPQBB exhaustive pre-judging questionnaire and qualification review. Breads will be judged and prizes awarded in three categories, traditional, non-traditional and gluten free as well as a populous choice. Contrary to popular belief the CPQBB is not just a front set up by Duke Jonathon to aid in the acquisition of Banana Bread... there are other people involved as well. Entries will be judged without the judges knowing who produced the entry. Judges will provide their own butter or spread of choice. Duke Jonathon and the CPQBB maintain no responsibility for the remains of entries making it back to the entrant, as it is expected that any crumbs left by the judges will be pilfered by wannabe judges and mooches who unlike His Grace did not come up with this brilliant idea to get his fill of banana bread.

Barres Sunday, March 2, 2014, 1:00pm Town Square, Sports Field Barres is an adult game played thusly:

The game is played on a rectangular field. At both ends, in each of the corners a base square is laid out. Base A is in the upper right hand corner and Base B is in the lower right corner. Opposite end of the field the bases are reversed, Base A is in the lower left corner and Base B is in the upper left hand corner. Base A and B on the right side of the field represent the teams prison and the opposite side of the field their freedom.

The game is played with two Captains and two Lieutenants, each with ten players. Both teams start with all of their team members in prison. The Captains are both placed in the center of the field. The Lieutenants to the sidelines, only one prisoner can try and escape from their prison at a time. They must avoid being tackled by the opposing Captain and make it to their freedom square on the opposite side of the field. If they are brought to ground, they go back to prison to wait their turn to try an escape again, and the next prisoner attempts to escape. The Captains can choose to be replaced by their Lieutenant (but only once during the course of play). The team who gets all of their prisoners out of prison and into the freedom square first wins.
