Words from Their Excellency's

Salve to the Inspiring Populace of The Barony of Atenveldt,

We hope that this missive finds all well and keeping cool, during this Atenveldt summer. What a busy summer it has been throughout the kingdom.

Saturday, June 21st found us relaxing and enjoying ourselves at The Barony of Twin Moons 25th birthday celebration. What a lovely time we spent with sock puppets and stories of BTM history.

Her Excellency traversed to The Barony of Sundragon on June 28th to attend Fabric Wars. This event just raises the bar every year. Such fun, camaraderie and friendly competition.

One of the greatest things We get to witness as landed nobility is to sit court while a new B&B is invested. On July 12th-13th We travelled to the cooler weather of The Barony of Ered Sul to attend Too Darn Hot and witness the retirement of Henry and Eirny and the stepping up of Angus and Katerina. So much fun and laughter and marshmallows!

July 26th found us in The Barony of Granite Mountain at their A&S Collegium and Polling. Their autocrats are to be commended for such a fun and educationally filled day. Congratulations to Lutold and Elsbeth for being graced by the Crown to be the next Baron and Baroness of the seventh wonder of Atenveldt.

With all this polling and investing, We have realized that We are currently the senior B&B in the kingdom. Time does fly as it does not seem like it has been over two years since we stepped up.

We will be attending Battlemoor during the last weekend in August in The Kingdom of The Outlands. HE Seelos has been once before and had such a great time that We decided to attend this year. We will be camping with Count Flanagan and hopefully getting to know some new friends in The Outlands.

It is hard to believe that BofA Champions is coming up in October already. We are looking for letters of intent from those that would like to declare for any of the Champions positions: Hardsuit, Rapier, A&S, Archery, Youth, and Thrown Weapons. Please send your letters to Coronet@baronyofatenveldt.org

Fall of 2014 is not very far away and will bring another change to The Barony of Atenveldt fighter practice schedule. From September 3rd through December 17th, fighter practice will return to Wednesday nights at Encanto Park. We are infinitely grateful to Lord Harry Rudkin for his efforts to keep us at Encanto.

Forever Inspired by the Gracious Populace of The Barony of Atenveldt,

Baron Seelos & Baroness Elena

15th Coronet of The Barony of Atenveldt

Premier Barony of The Society

*****Important Note*****

There are many aspects of service when you are the coronet of a barony. One of the many important things that must be taken care of involves largess. Largess can be anything from gift baskets for stepping down/up crowns and coronets to prizes for tournaments. We have been truly fortunate to have Lady Avelene who has provided every basket and all of the belt favors for the Novice Tourney since before our stepping up. As one can imagine, this is a lot of work and can become costly as the baskets and prizes cannot be covered by the baronial coffers. We ask that if you are able to, please donate items that can be used for the gift baskets and prizes for the tournaments. We have an especially difficult time finding prizes for the male tournament winners. If you'd like to donate, or have a question, please contact HE Elena. Thank you in advance for your generosity.

If you are interested in the Office as the Deputy Chirurgeon please contact the Seneschal and their Excellencies with a letter of intent detailing your experience.

Here are the Requirements Taken from the Chirurgeon's Handbook: The Chirurgeonate is the volunteer first-aid organization of the Society for Creative Anachronism, Inc., a non-profit educational organization devoted to the study of the Middle Ages and Renaissance. It is part of the "living history" movement, where members try to reproduce various aspects of the culture and technology of their period, as well as pursuing more traditional historical research. The SCA sponsors events such as medieval tournaments and feasts, where members dress in Medieval and Renaissance styles, and participate in activities based on the civil and martial arts of the Middle Ages. We use the medieval term "Chirurgeon" instead of "first aider," "first responder," or "medic" in our efforts to maintain a medieval atmosphere at SCA events. We also use the Medieval bloodletting device, the fleam, as the symbol of the Chirurgeonate instead of the modern red short armed cross whose use is restricted by international treaty to organizations affiliated with the International Red Cross and the military.

The members of the Chirurgeonate include Red Cross-trained first aiders, medical doctors, military medical corpsmen, nurses, paramedics, St. John's and St. Andrew's ambulance volunteers, and many other medical volunteers and professionals. We come from all walks of life and from many countries around the globe. We are united as members of the Chirurgeonate for one purpose: to provide first aid at SCA events.

The members of the Chirurgeonate provide first aid on a volunteer basis at SCA events. First aid performed in the SCA is Good Samaritan in nature, and is provided to anyone who asks at no cost to the recipient. This has been our tradition ever since Bjo of Griffin, arguably the first-known Chirurgeon, started bringing her first-aid kit to SCA events, back in the days when there was but a single Kingdom. If you are interested in the Office as the Deputy Chirurgeon please contact the Seneschal and their Excellencies with a letter of intent detailing your experience and the role you wish to assume.

The official source for all officer and deputy openings is the Seneschals office. If you have any questions about this list, any officer or deputy position or duties please contact the Seneschals office or the Baron and Baroness.
